BRICK HOMES

WILLONA

The Award winning Willona the HIA judges in 2001 and continues to delight people to this day. This grand family home has been built with all the characteristics that make it an award winner. When pulling up in front of the home visitor and guest are treated to the vision of traditional gables welcoming portico area. Stepping inside each room is individual and private allowing everyone to have their own space. The main hub of the home is lounge/ dining/ kitchen area where all the family comes together. The office/ hobby room is open to any option that you may want to use it for. The outdoor access toilet is big plus when you have children and are entertaining outside reducing to need for people to go inside the home. Having the double garage is such an advantage. Storage areas are everywhere in the home. This home has been designed for a growing family with changing needs. A home to live in, for a lifetime.
